LaserVision NOW ON LASERDISC! LaserVision

Start the summer in style with these three blockbusters from Warner Home Video, now being made available through Lightning Distribution in Laserdisc format.

First of the new titles to be released, on 6th June, will be Clint Eastwood's 'Pale Rider', in which the town of Carmel's favourite local government official makes a dramatic return to the western genre. Following 'Pale Rider', 'Mad Max III — Beyond Thunderdome' will be issued on June 13th. The latest and greatest in the phenomenally successful Mad Max series again stars Mel Gibson as Max, with a strong supporting cast headed by Tina Turner.

The third new Laservision title from Warners is the all-action Steven Spielberg presentation, 'The Goonies', which is to be simultaneously released on video on 27th June.

Offering superb pictures and sound at a dealer price of only £13.03 (Exc. VAT), these new Laservision features look set to be the most successful titles yet in this format — don't miss out, order your copies now!
